	3 No reference is made to this subject in the Devaswom reply. (Vide page 112 of the Progs. put up)
	4. The District Board is a statutory body and the powers and duties of that body are regulated by the Regulation creating it. It may not therefore be expedient to entrust the work of the R. D. Scheme to such a body with limited powers and duties. (1) Further it may be difficult to get uniformity of action in regard to the Roads pertaining to three Districts (2) without a central authority (3) to guide their actions as will have in the case of the R. D. Schemes.

Extract from the address presented by Mr. N. Krishnaswami Rao & other M.L.A. Members of Kasaragod.

While repeating expressions of our loyalty and thankfulness, through you, to His Highness the Maharaja and to you for several reforms introduced, we beg to submit the following for consideration.

(a) Amelioration of the condition of the malnad is aptly and entirely the subject of local interest and consequently it is one that can rightly be incorporated with the District Board a well organised body. We therefore venture to suggest that it may be associated with that Department. On the District Board, there are at present, men representing malnad portions also and the funds allotted for the malnad improvement if added to the District Board, would place the latter on better resources; and the savings effected from the separate establishment charges may, well and more, be spent for the execution of works of utility. From our knowledge of things, we are apt to think and we have often heard it said that there are now more directing agencies than necessary and that what is wanted are executing agencies.
